WIndow To The World (LP Version)

Geddy Lee

I've gone flying, trying to reach you
You've been hiding, riding me to a state like thisGive me that window to,
Give me that window to,
Give me that window to the worldWe are sailing, flailing through the ether
You've been trailing, failing me with you're View of blissGive me that window to,
Give me that window to,
Give me that window to the worldA little more than this,
A little less than that,
You've got magic in your handsA little more like this,
A little less like that,
I've got magic in my handsYou've conspired, inspired me to Find a place like thisGive me that window to,
Give me that window to,
Give me that window to the world
