Who Slayed Baby Jane?

W.a.s.p.

Tell me now who slayed
Oh my little baby Jane
Rollin' down the stairs
Her little head has rolled away
I put it in my hands
'Cause it feels so bizarre
Can baby Jane come out to play?
Show me all you got
No, you don't wanna know
No, you don't wanna know
No, you don't wanna know
Who slayed baby Jane I know
No, you don't wanna know
No, you don't wanna know
No, you don't wanna know
Who slayed baby Jane
Can I rock your cradle?
I love it when you scream
Goodbye baby Jane
Who slayed baby Jane
She's all right, it's alright, oh my Jane
No more baby Jane
You got no pain baby Jane
So goodbye, goodbye, oh my baby
Oh, I love that fixed and dilated
Look that's in your eyes
I'll make you worse and more perverse
Than when you were alive
Oh, I'll wear her face
With a big demonic smile
If only she could scream
The she'd get me off tonight
No, you don't wanna know
No, you don't wanna know
No, you don't wanna know
Who slayed baby Jane I know
No, you don't wanna know
No, you don't wanna know
No, you don't wanna know

Who slayed baby Jane
Can I rock your cradle
Oh, I'll love it when you scream
Goodbye baby Jane
Who slayed baby Jane
She's all right, it's alright, oh my Jane
No more baby Jane
Who slayed baby Jane
No more baby Jane
