Long Painting

50 Foot Wave

Long painting
The air plays along
With my chemicals
Drained againBut I don't feel so sorry
And I don't feel so bad
I don't feel so sorry
And I don't feel so badParalyzed by inaction
In a floodlit parking garage
When my mind's as fluid as my body
I finally shut upI'm sorry to say I was in love
Static played through my middle
Seared my gut, ahh, ahh, ahh
Ahh, ahh, ahhNews is bad news
I look to my beer
For solace
Drained againBut I don't feel so sorry
And I don't feel so bad
I don't feel so sorry
And I don't feel so badParalyzed by inaction
In a floodlit parking garage
When my mind's as fluid as my body
I finally shut upI'm sorry to say I was in love
Static played through my middle
Seared my gut, ahh, ahh, ahh
Ahh, ahh, ahh
