Know You

Infinity Frequencies

I remember lonely she wouldn`t hold me, wouldn`t touch me at all i do and I remember crying she was the one that left me crying with no shoulder to use and I remember lies she was one of those types that would look me in my eyes and lie and I was almost through until i ran into you i`m just so glad i know you i didn`t know love til i`m in love i got my hands up,
what would i do if i didn`t know you running out of hope til i`m in love now i can stand up
if i didn`t know I remember angry she had some issues that we couldn`t work through oh she reminded of jealous always accusing me and now i bet she`s jealous of you and I remember bye bye she was one of them types that was in and out my life all the time

i got my hands up,
running out of hope til i`m in love
if i didn`t know you i know you better than i know myself thought i knew love but i was by myself can`t call it love, no, now with no one else but you

i got my hands up,
if i didn`t know you
