The Mirror's Truth

In Flames

It's best to go, while I collapse
It's not a false alarm
The ashes settle inWell, I guess we are the insane
As we ignore the mirror's truth
Should I join the feast?
Should I acknowledge the leash?
The future in captivity, I'm not who I'm supposed to beWithout even trying Well, let this light explodeThe bleeding, we deceive them
Fuel the lies, they try to hide the reason
We should live by a loss, call the swarm
Feed them another false hopeWithout even trying
Let this light explode
Without even trying
Find the exit sign then disappearWithout even trying
Let this night explode
Without even trying
We'll find the exit sign then disappear
