Ready for Love

Kelly Sweet

When love calls your name
And whispers you're the one
When all you've ever dreamed
Dances like stars around your heartAnd finally I hold the chance
To give you all my love
So what's keeping me away from holding you?I'm ready to believe
Be strong enough
Give everything I have
And trust in loveMy arms long to reach for you
The way I feel I wish you knew
I'm ready now, I'm ready to believe
I'm ready for loveOnly once you will find
A love that is so true
And the way I think of you
You can't imagine how beautiful it feelsI must find a way to free
The secret I hold near
It's these words you need to hearI'm ready to believe
Be strong enough
Give everything I have
And trust in loveMy arms long to reach for you
The way I feel I wish you knew
I'm ready now, I'm ready to believeI know with you I could stay forever
Sailing into grace
Here all things are possible
There's no time or space
When I feel you nearI'm ready to believe
Be strong enough
Give everything I am
And trust in loveMy arms long to reach for you
The way I feel I wish you knew
I'm ready now, I'm ready to believe
