Bad Machine

Seconds Away

Cigarette smoke fills the room as my
Lungs turn black
I've lost my conviction to pull the knife
Out of my backCaught inside, these burning lies
Left beside myself and
It's clear that I, won't ever find
Yeah I'm lost until
Lost until the endThis is what's killing the
Days of my life
And the ashes are still falling
From what burns inside
What burns inside of meYou're a bad machine, give me what i need
It's so easy to say you fucked everything
You're so sick and alone you're a fake
You're the reason that I hateStill I'm caught inside, every single lie
Left beside myself again
It's so clear that I, that I'll never find
Yeah I'm lost until
Lost until the endThis is what's killing the
Days of my life
And the ashes are still falling
From what burns inside
What burns inside of meDidn't you say that you know where we are?
Didn't you? Didn't you?
Wouldn't you lead us away from the start?
Wouldn't you? Wouldn't you?This is what's killing the
Days of my life
And the ashes are still falling
From what burns inside
What burns inside of me (x2)Inside of me
Fuck!
