Being Brave

Menswear

Summer's almost here and the evening's getting warm
Screw my head on a different way
Hug my pillow and try not to count the daysWinter's gone away and the mornings aren't so cold
Rub the sleep out of my face
Hug my pillow and try not to count the days
Get your face out of my brainI don't believe in being brave
Ba, ba, ba, bah
I don't believe in being brave
Ba, ba, ba, bahEvening's over now and the daylight's on it's way
Empty bottles on the floor
Give it a back beat and try not to lose your head
No, you won't have to pretend anymoreI don't believe in being brave
Ba, ba, ba, bah
I don't believe in being brave
Ba, ba, ba, bah
I only need my piece of space
I need to breatheI don't believe in being brave
Ba, ba, ba, bah
I don't believe in being brave
Ba, ba, ba, bahNow it's time to say goodnight
So sleep tight
