Red Lighter

SoMo

A box of clothes
Some written notes
Is all I have left now
She closed the door
No turning back
This time it is clear now
Forgotten words and hopeless heard
All left in the past now
Maybe it's for the best
Don't call it an angel's test
My heart has no fear nowBut you'll always be a part of me
And I got this red lighter, red lighter
Got this red lighter, red lighterAll these thoughts are driving me insane
Memory of your eyes, hiding this flame
You can't take any of that away
Let it burn out, we're caught in the rain
Rain rain, rain rain rainEven after the storm, the clouds are reborn but it's never been wetter
It must have been fate, two hearts didn't break, it's gotta get better
I'll keep these thoughts alive inside to remind me whenever
I'm down and out, I'll think about when you said foreverAnd you'll always be a part of me
'Cause I got this red lighter, red lighter
Got this red lighter, red lighterAll these thoughts are driving me insane
Memory of your eyes, hiding this flame
You can't take any of that away
Let it burn out, we're caught in the rain
Rain rain
Rain rain
Rain rain
Rain rain
Rain rain
Rain rain
Rain rain
Rain rainBut I got this red lighter, red lighter
Red lighter, red lighterAll these thoughts are driving me insane
Memory of your eyes, hiding this flame
You can't take any of that away
Let it burn out, we're caught in the rain
Rain rain
Rain rain rain
