Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Hey Wendell, where are you now?
I searched online but nothing found
I wonder what you done
And what you becomeWendell, you were the first for me?
We were both stoned and seventeen
After our date at the Denny's
We got it on, we got it onIt didn't last too longHey Robin, I typed in your name
Nothing came up, so I'm afraid
I'll never know exactly why you broke up with me
But it turned out okayMet someone else on that same day
Her name was Jenny and I wrote her that song
Didn't last too long
And the list goes onThese are some of the people that I
(Some of the people)
I went out with before I met you
These are some of the people that I
(Some of the people)
Thought would be the one, ohOh Billy, my, how you've changed
You lost your hair and gained that weight
I wonder if I
Look that bad tooHave you kept up with my career?
Do you still wish that you were near?
I hope that you regret
You fucked my best friend, Marilyn, MarilynThese are some of the people that I
(Some of the people)
I went out with before I met you
These are some of the people that I
(Some of the people)
Thought would be the one, ohHey Alex, now what do I do?
Went on Classmates and I found you
Do I pay extra for your address and phone?
No, I leave it aloneI got a new love in my life

I think that this one could be right
If not, I'll add another verse to this song
And the list goes onThese are some of the people that I
(Some of the people)
I went out with before I met you
These are some of the people that I
(Some of the people)
Thought would be the oneThese are some of the people that I
(Some of the people)
Thought would last and make me happy
These are some of the people that I
(Some of the people)
Thought would be the one
OhHey Wendell, where are you now?
Hey Wendell, where are you now?
