All The Way Down; Prologue, Chapter 1

Biffy Clyro

(Prologue)Taking part's what counts, but you are not around
Never understand my goals for youLooking back, seems that everyone in my life
I will be waiting for you
I will be waiting for you
Until the evidence conveys another sideNever understand my hopes for youSleeveless and miniature
Monster overture
Never be complete unless you knowLooking back, seems that everyone in my life
Will be waiting for me
I will be waiting for you
Until the evidence conveys another sideHave you found your way home?
Have you found your way?
Have you found your way home?
Have you found your way?(Chapter 1)I feel wonderous, controlling me seems like a good idea
I'll do my best to uphold you, but I know that in the nightEver wondered if it's forever
The moment passes, but I feel you nowI feel wonderous and holy and I know it's all right
I'll do my best to uphold you, but I know that in the nightEver wondered if it's forever
The moment passes, but I feel you nowAll the way down
All the way downAll the way down (repeat through)So I'll try not to breathe as I hold my head still
The light bends on my face, there'd be tears if i cried
And I'll try not to think what the happy things were
I'll just think of the stuff that just made me shit scared
And I'll just close my eyes and I'll see everyone
That I'm leaving behind for the dawn of the sun
And I'll try not to feel, yes I'll try not to feel
I'll try not to feel on the way down
