Confessor

Black Country Communion

You give me the madness
I'll give you a sign
No need to be mindless
At the scene of the crimeNow do you have a confession
That you want to make?
Your resurrection
I'm ready to takeRelease the fantasy
And catch the final trip
Unleash the majesty
And tighten up your grip
Inside your memory
Has choked on broken glass
Beneath the Karma tree
You know this too shall pass
I won't let you walk this path aloneConfessor
Let the motor burn
Confessor
Its time to overturn
Confessor
Can't justify the past
I see your colors
Were born to lastIt's your resolution
What cannot be done
A simple solution
Before it all begunAnd if you happen to see me
I'm already there
Out here on the hillside
I'm everywhereRelease the fantasy
And catch the final trip
Unleash the majesty
And tighten up your grip
Inside your memory
Has choked on broken glass
Beneath the Karma tree
You know this too shall pass
I won't let you walk this path aloneConfessor
Let the motor burn
Confessor
Its time to overturn

Confessor
Can't justify the past
I see your colors
Were born to lastRelease the fantasy
And catch the final trip
Unleash the majesty
Inside your memory
Beneath the Karma tree
I won't let you walk this path alone
