Mama Said

Declan Galbraith

I couldn't sleep last night
There was something on my mind
I lay there wishing in the dark
Someone could tell me why
If you love somebody from the bottom of your heart
Why do you hurt each other
How does it fall apart?And then I heard a voice as she sat down on my bed
And I can still remember
The words my mama saidChorus
Love can give, love can take
Love can bend and love can break
When you think it's over, it's not the end
Don't give in, just be strong
And please remember son, my mama said
There ain't no broken heart love cannot mendMy mama said, no one knows
What your life has got in store
You may go walking on the moon
You may be rich or poor
But I know for certain
If you try to reach the stars
Anything is possible
Your dreams are what you areBut when it comes to matters of the heart
There is no guarantees
All that I can say to you
Is what my mama said to meSo one day in my lifetime
if my world falls apart
I won't cry, I'll just tell my heart
My heartChorus
Love can give, love can take
Love can bend and love can break
When you think it's over, it's not the end
Don't give in, just be strong
And please remember when, my mama said
There ain't no broken heart love cannot mend
There ain't no broken heart love cannot mend

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/