The Waves

Illumion

I'll get away, get in the car
I'll reach the shore before sunrise
And I'll watch the moon and the stars
I'll tell them everything about us
I left last night
And I reached the shore
Trying to find everything I lost
In a thousand waves
A million waves
Oh still, somewhere I'm sure
That I will see your face
I will see you there

Oh, morning sun
Before you arise
Before you'll come and shine again on us
Let me find, let me find, let me find
Some comfort in the night
I don't mind what I've lost
I've reached the shore
And nothing ever changed
In a thousand waves
A million waves
Oh still, I look for love
And all I see is your face
All I see is your face (x3)
So I come back home to you
