Crosseyed Cat

Joe Pitts

Yeah I'm so sorry, I got to leave my woman alone
Yeah I'm so sorry, I got to leave my babe alone
Well you know she got a cross eyed cat
Livin' without that man in her homeEvery time I start to see this woman
He's in the corner growlin' or layin' down
Every time I start to see this woman
He's in the corner growlin' or layin' downYeah you know he too big
To be a house cat
And he too small to be allowed
There's somethin' wrongYeah I stop by my baby's house
He start jumpin' from wall to wall
Yeah I stop by my honey's house
He start jumpin' from wall to wallYeah he spun those cross eyes at me
Sat back in the corner boy and licked his paw
I made this cat boy
Tell the catTell the catYeah, my woman got a cross eyed cat
Livin' there with her in her home
Yeah, my woman got a cross eyed cat
Livin' there with her boy, down her homeOh you know I try so hard to do her right
But it seem like everything boy, I do is wrong
