Otherside

Nebulist

Let me know if you care
I can still feel that there's something left between us
And I know that this feeling is here to stay
And it's not gonna go away
I feel like this angel is gonna leave me all alone
So I close my eyes and see you in my home
Slipping through my hands, she begins to cry
I'll wait to see you on the other side
Look into her eyes as she begins to cry
I'll wait to see you on the other side
My bedroom friend is leaving but I'm still dreaming all alone
So I close my eyes and see you in my home

Slipping through my hands, she begins to cry
I'll wait to see you on the other side
Look into her eyes as she begins to cry
I'll wait to see you on the other side
I feel there's something left here
And I know this feelings here to stay
I feel the angel leave me
Close your eyes to see me
I feel there's something left here
And I know this feelings here to stay
I feel the angel leave me
Close your eyes to see your other side
