I Give Up

Roy Orbison

I'm losin' my mind completely
From you telling lies so sweetly
Breaking my heart too neatly
I give upYou told me that you once loved me
And you placed yourself above me
Now I know you never loved me
I give upI give up I'm through with trying
I give up I'm through with your lying
I give up I'm through with you
I give up I've done all I can doI don't want to share tomorrow
I don't want your love to borrow
My life is filled with sorrow
I give upI give up I'm through with trying
I give up I'm through with your lying
I give up I'm through with you
I give up I've done all I can doI don't want to share tomorrows
My life is filled with sorrow
I don't want your love to borrow
I give up
