Before I Fade Away

YOHIO

You hide yourself behind broken mirrors from the past I know it hurts when the pain is so diverse and all your hope is fading Seek the truth inside your soul
Close your eyes and you will see
Your thoughts, your voice, carry on!Catch me, I'm falling downSomeone save me before I fade away
I kow it's hard to forget but if you try
You'll find a way to smile againTurn off the lights and try to pretend that it's not dark Don't be afraid, even though your arms are filled with traces of your feelings
Time will come to set you free
Close your eyes and you will see
Your thoughts, your voice, carry on!Catch me, I'm falling downSomeone save me before I fade away
I know it's hard to forget but if you try you'll find a way to smile againKono kanashimi ga itsuka owaru no ka?
Jibun no jinsei no imi wo sagashiteta
Itsumo soba ni iru so shinjitetanda
Boku was ima, mou ikitakunaindaTake the time to save yourself
Break the chains and nothing else
Find your way before you fade awaySomeone save me before I fade away
I know it's hard to forget but if you try you'll find a way to smile againYou'll find a way to smile again
