Brother Interior

Rollins Band

The lonely path I walk
To the end of the line
Let all my dreams be yours
Your nightmares mineI call your name out
So I know I'm not alone
The brother interior
Inside my soul you're sewn
I won't be calling for longDeep in my coma
Darkness is all I see
In the shadow of death
You light a way for me
My only brother
Why did you have to die?
You're always shining
The brightest star in the sky
I won't be crawling for longEvery day is a blessing
Every day I learn
Every night is a mission
And every time it's a lesson that burns
I now something better waits for me
Till then I live in memories
I won't be burning for long
