Come on Out

The Elwins

Take your cold hands and put them on my face
Sharpen your axe and your criminal ways
Let's go to town and do what we did before It's gonna hurt but we don't feel pain no moreIf you're alive can you say that you've tried to be someone who's true?
Stuck in your shell
Looking for help
Come on out and things will soon change
You gotta keep your head upStart your day by doing something good Treat a friend the way you know you should Like a cat in its cage
I feel we're pacing around and never getting our way
But if you know you're a mitt inside a sleeve, that's a fit and that's as good as it getsIf you're alive can you say that you've tried
to be someone who's true?
Stuck in your shell
Looking for help
Come on out and things will soon change
You gotta keep your head upYou gotta keep your head up
You gotta keep your head upMoving quickly
Sure feels so empty
I've thought about it and all the while I'm still doing the same old thing
I can't say that I'll change or I'll find a new way
Til I know who I am, that's right
Inside my head
I know I've seen a dreamIf you're alive can you say that you've tried
to be someone who's true?
Stuck in your shell
Looking for help
Come on out and things will soon change
You gotta keep your head upYou gotta keep it up
I know that we'll find our way
