After Tonight

Roy Orbison

It's our last dance and my last chance to be holding you tight for soon, you'll belong to someone else After TonightEveryone says in a few days everything will be alright
For you, it may be, but not for me
After TonightAll The moments that we are together why can't they last, forever and ever [x2]Oh, as I leave you, I'll won't see you For teardrops are dulling my side
And soon you will be a memory
After Tonight [x2]
