What Have You Got Planned Tonight Diana

Randy Travis

It all started in 1929 me and Diana had gone to Alaska
To homestead some of that free government landForty miles from the nearest gravel road
We cut our life in the ponderosa pines
We sweated hard to beat the winter snow
But the cabin's up and we've got lots of timesWhat have you got planned tonight Diana
Would you consider laying in my arms
I love you more than ever now Diana
I'm sure you're the reason I was born
Jim was born the first year we were here
Look at him Diana he's almost grown
And the baby's in the cradle fast asleep
Just think in no time they'll be up and goneWhat have you got planned tonight Diana
Would you consider laying in my arms
I love you more than ever now Diana
I'm sure you're the reason I was bornWell time sure does fly by doesn't it Diana
It's been almost two years now since you've been gone
Speaking of time
I guess mine's about up
Just another breath or two
And I'll be home
And by the way
What have you got planned tonight Diana
Would you consider laying in my arms
I love you more than ever now Diana
I'm sure you're the reason I was born
