Portland Rain

Steve Key

Yeah, that's right
I stand out breaking
In the Portland rain
I see the end there in your eyes
As I watch you drive away
I walk back blind
Into my cold dream house
And I think about the damage
As I put the big light out
I sit down smoking
On my basement floor
I hear footsteps up above me
And they are right outside my front door
The only place that I wanna be
Is watching you move up on top of me
The only sound that I wanna hear
Is the rain against my window
As you whisper in my ear
Baby, you know I love it
When you call me baby, baby
I go upstairs
And find my twelve year old
She's got tears running down her face
Sitting sad at my piano
She sings soft words
From that old Beatles song
And I think about my yesterday
And all the things I did wrong
The only place that I wanna be
Is watching you sweet dream
In bed right next to me
The only sound that I wanna hear
Is the rain against my window
As I pull you near
Don't give up on me
Baby, can't you you see?
We could make this be

The way it used to be

Don't give up on me
Wish I could make you see
That I am changing everyday
Trying to build a better me
The way it's supposed to be
Don't give up on me
I stand out in the rain
Where I watched you drive away
Never thought I'd live to see
This fucked-up day
Stand out in the rain
In the middle of the night
Wish that it could wash away
The beast inside
The only thing I wanna do
Is kiss you when I am coming
Deep inside of you
As I hold you
Baby, can't you see?
We can make this be
Wish I could make you see
That I am changing everyday
Don't give up on me
Don't give up on me
