Ain't No Sense In Love

Take That

I'm afraid of the mornin'
I'm afraid of the light
You should come with a warnin'
Yeah, you should be wearin' a signOh, that says you're beautiful trouble
So you better beware
One look and I was in right over my head
Oh, this misery
There's no place on earth I'd rather be'Cause you're not the one I need
You're just the one that I want
Makes perfect sense to me'Cause you're not the one I need
But you're the one that I want
There ain't no sense in love
Ain't no sense in loveAin't no sense in love
(There ain't no sense in)
Ain't no sense in love
(There ain't no sense in)
Ain't no sense in love
(There ain't no sense in)
Ain't no sense in loveI try to stop myself
So many times
But I keep fallin' over
Yeah, I keep crossin' the lineOh, the heart of a gypsy
And the soul of a stone
It's just a matter of time
Before you leave me alone, sweet misery
Fill my heart up and pour it all over me'Cause you're not the one I need
You're just the one that I want
Makes perfect sense to me'Cause you're not the one I need
But you're the one that I want
There ain't no sense in love
Ain't no sense in loveIt's not logical, that's the way I feel (It's not logical, psychological)
Yeah, it's heaven underneath my skin
But it's hell out here, it's hell out here, yeah
There's no sense in love, ohh'Cause you're not the one I need, oh
You're just the one that I want
Makes perfect sense to me, yeah'Cause you're not the one I need, oh
But you're the one that I want
There ain't no sense in love

Ain't no sense in love, ohYou're just the one that I want
Makes perfect sense to me
Ain't no sense in love, ooh yeah
No sense in love
