Broken Wings

Silent Force

[Beyrodt / Cooper / Hilgers]Escape, confines run into night
Tense whispers from nearby
A life lost in my eyes
Drak image of a smileFraying at the edges in my mind Reflections in the mirrorOne time so I can feel it again,
The touch as my angel
is mending my wings
One time so I can feel it again
Mending my broken wingsChanges, the meadow green to brown Bare becomes the ground
As if this world was void of all my love unvoicedPlaying at the borders trapped in time reflections disappearingOne time so I can feel it again,
The touch as my angel
is mending my wings
One time so I can feel it again
Mending my broken wingsI wonder if they're missing me can it be ignored ?
Take my hand please lift me up
This is my rewardCannot take the blame Cannot cary shameOne time so I can feel it again,
The touch as my angel
is mending my wings
One time so I can feel it again
Mending my broken wings
