Of what was really wrong inside
I just didn't want to know about it
'Cos all I needed to do was hide

And all my friends wanted to find out
I just didn't want to know about it
'Cos all I needed to do was shoutI Never Needed YouAs soon as I was told I was going to die
A different person entered me
Some people seemed to change overnight
Oh why cant they see?
I just couldn't seem to do no wrong
All I seemed to do was right and then with only two months left
That's all I seemed to do was fight
And say....
