Anybody Wanna Take Me Home (Early Mix)

Ryan Adams

So, I am in the twilight of my youth
Not that I'm going to remember
And have you seen the moon tonight,
Is is full?Still burning its embers
The people dancing in the corner,
They seem happy
But I am sad
I am still dancing int he coma
Of the drinks I just had
Does anybody want to take me home?
Does anybody want to take me home?Take me to your house,
And I'll leave you alone
Of course I will
Of course I won't
It seems so tragic
But it disappears like magic
Like magicCan you recommend an education or drugs
Because I am bored with you already
I'm on Broadway, and I think it's a parade
I'm covered in pieces of confetti
An I am in the twilight of my youth
Not that I am going to remember
Dancing and slowly and finding the truthAnd it's covered in coma
All of these people in my life,
Well they seem so in love
Well, I am not
Memorizing my shoes in a cigarette shop
Does anybody want to take me home?
Does anybody want to take me home?
I'm kinda lonely, will you take me home?Of course you will
Of course you won't
Of course I'm crass
It seems so tragic
Of course you will
Of course you won't
But I'll disappear
I'll disappearJust like magic
Just like magic

Just like magic
