Love Goes Boom

Bowling For Soup

S-s-saw you in December
I can't believe that summer got here so fast
I hardly can remember
Crawling through the dust cloud after the blastT-t-tripping over land mines
Falling over words when I see your face
Oh yeah, you took your sweet time
Breaking down the walls blowing me awayL-l-love is like a hurricane
L-l-love is like a car crash
And I just can't look awayL-l-love is like a time bomb, 4, 3, 2, 1
Every time you walk in the room
Love goes boom, love goes boom
Love goes boom, love goes boomYoy t-t-told me that ya love me
And suddenly the sky fell to the ground
I'm sh-sh-shaking like an earthquake, honey
You've got my whole world turned upside downAnd I never could imagine and I don't want to pretend
I just know that don't want this to endL-l-love is like a hurricane
And I just can't look awayL-l-love is like a time bomb, 4, 3, 2, 1
Every time you walk in the room
Love goes boom, love goes boom
Love goes boom, love goes boomLove goes boom, I don't know what to do
I swear I'm exploding every time I look at youAnd I never could imagine and I don't want to pretend
I just know that don't want this to endL-l-love is like a time bomb
Love goes boom, love goes boom
Love goes boom, love goes boom
Love goes boom, love goes boom
Love goes boom, love goes boomLove goes boom, love goes boom
Love goes boom, love goes boom
