God Only Knows

Neil Diamond

I may not always love you
But as long as there are stars above you
You'll never need to doubt it
I'll make you so sure about it
'Cause God only knows what I'd be without you
And if you should ever leave me
The world would still go on, believe me
And the world could show nothing to me
But what good will living do me
God only knows what I'd be without you
God only knows what I'd be without you
And if you should ever leave me
Life would still go on, believe me
And the world could show nothing to me
So what good will living do me
God only knows what I'd be without you
God only knows what I'd be without you
God only knows what I'd be without you
God only knows what I'd be without you
