Sweeter Than Wine

The Senators

Shes pure as the morning, the sweet virgin sun
As it rises through shadows and opens my eyes
Shes sweet as an apple from an orchard thats never been tamed
And the snake never spoke to herSo Ill wait for you, Love
And lift you right up from your feet on the ground
Til your heads in the clouds
You left me out West, to chase the whole world down
I aint running after you none
But Id wait for you, Love.Her love runs like a river that cuts through the earth
And she runs through my mind at the end of the day
Her hearts deep as an ocean, it rises and falls
And I fear that the sea it might swallow me wholeSo Ill wait for you, Love
And lift you right up from your feet on the ground
Til your heads in the clouds
You left me out West, to chase the whole world down
I aint running after you none
But Id wait for you, Love.
