Be Natural

Monroeville

Be natural once in my life
Now I'll have to swallow some pride
Know that I should never give advice
But it's too late now to say goodbyeBe natural, don't want any friends
Be natural, come on and hit me again
Be natural, I'm repeating myself
Be natural, is there anything else?Starbright keep me safe today and tonight
No water tastes like lemonade
Slowly, slowly it starts to fadeBe natural, with me tonight
Be natural, put your fists in my eyes
Be natural, so turn me to stone
Be natural, just leave me aloneGrown up or backwards born
Into eternity and blackholes
Floating around up here on my own
Screaming at me forever unknownBe natural, be natural, be natural
Be natural is there anyone else?
