Slap Like Being Born

Night Ranger

I hear you won't dance, You say no one asks you anyway
Hard to make ends meet, Domino's every day
If the bible taught us anything
Adam got the best of the dealHorizontal sailing, something that you want to do
Telephone is ringing but the message isn't getting through
How are you supposed to touch
If you don't even know how to feel?We'll open up your eyes
No one gets two triesYou need a shot to knock you on your knees
(A slap like being born)
You need a shock to force your brain to breathe
Nothing less or more
(Nothing less or more)
A slap like being bornKeystone holiday, you headed for the Show Me state
Trials and tribulations, money came a little late
Stoned downtown
With a paper bag and no shoesWell, so much innocence, lose it in a second flat
Revolution on the way
You tell me what's up with that
This stuff was over back in 1972So open up your eyes
You're in for a surpriseYou need a shot to knock you on your knees
(A slap like being born)
You need a shock to force your brain to breathe
Nothing less or more
(Nothing less or more)
A slap like being bornDon't even go there
Don't even bother to try
'Cause you know if you go there
Yeah, you might as well kiss me goodbyeYou're in for a surprise
No one gets two triesYou need a shot to knock you on your knees
(A slap like being born)
You need a shock to force your brain to breathe
(A slap like being born)
You need a shot to knock you on your knees
(A slap like being born)You need a shock to force your brain to breathe
Nothing less or more
(Nothing less or more)
A slap like being bornYou need a shot
You need a shot
You need a shot
