Fair Play

Van Morrison

Fair play to you
Killarney's lakes are so blue
And the architecture I'm taking in
With my mind is so fineTell me of Poe
Oscar Wilde and Thoreau
Let your midnight and your daytime
Turn into love of lifeIt's a very fine line
But you've got the mind child
To carry it on when it's just
About to be carried onAnd there's only one mellow way to go
And you say Geronimo
And there's only one mellow way to go
And you say GeronimoA paperback book
As we walk down the street
Fill my mind with tales of mystery
Mystery and imaginationForever fair
And I'm touching your hair
I wish we would be dreamers in this dream
Oh, oh, let it beAnd there's only one meadow's way to go
And you say Geronimo
And there's only one meadow's way to go
And you say GeronimoFair play to you
Killarney's lakes are so blue
Hi ho, Silver, tit for tat
And I love you for that
Hi ho, Silver, tit for tat
And I love you for that
