Meant to Suffer

Severe Torture

One by one
I'll slit their throats
For I am the commander
My knife penetrates
My hunger for death grows
Blinded by evil I slaughterPain for the ones
Who praise the messiah
You're meant to suffer
Meant to sufferNo excuse to live
Only a price to pay
For everything done
In the name of godI'll watch them scream the things they believe
But their words are soft and weakI'll smash
Their lying mouths
Take god with you to your gravePain for the ones
Who praise the messiah
You're meant to suffer
Meant to suffer
