Sooner Or Later

Duncan James

Don't be scared of your shadow
You can't hide from your sorrow
You can't stay here till tomorrow
Welcome to the club of broken hearts
Where a thousand lonely souls have passed
[chorus]Sooner or later you're gonna wake up
And find what you're looking for
Like a diamond wahsed up on the shore
In the meantime you're feeling like you're lost without a friend
Sooner or later you're gonna love again

Sooner or later you're gonna love again
Love has left you rejected
You put u your defenses
Now, your heart's been tried and tested
Now you join the land of broken dreams
No good wishing for what could've been [repeat chorus]Don't be scared of your shadow
You can't hide from your sorrow
[repeat chorus 3x]
