You Could Walk Forever

Devics

the walk that walks and takes me forever leads me down the road to nothing the shoes that take me don't matter and I've been walking foreveryou could wear fancy clothes you could hope that I wear your rose but inside I know what's true and baby it's not youthe walk that I've been walking forever to make sure no one finds me everI could wear pretty clothes and I could wear your rose but inside you know the truth you know... I'm not like you
