Big Blue Diamonds

Van Morrison

Blue diamonds, big blue diamonds on her finger
Instead of a little band of gold
Big diamonds, big blue diamonds
Tell the story of the love that no one man could holdShe wanted more than I had money to buy
So she left me sad and lonely, I am told
Big diamonds, big blue diamonds
Now she'll trade them for the love behind a little band of goldBlue diamonds, big blue diamonds, how they sparkle
But what can they do to warm your heart and soul?
When you're lonesome in the moonlight and you want lovin', yea
Big blue diamonds, don't they seem so reckless and bold?I'd gladly do my part to mend her broken heart
But a love that's warmed over soon grows cold
Big diamonds, big blue diamonds, I don't want them, no
Oh, I just want a love behind a little band of gold

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/