Internal War

Dies Irae

Divided soul, divided body
Cauldron of thoughts
Nine, nine, nine, open the gate
The ninth level illumination of chosen oneFixed star of invisible light
The darkest obsession
Fidelity of purposes which opens the gate
The ninth level illumination of chosen oneInfinity of paths never ending war
Extraordinary effort, recurrent influx
Of thoughts which opens the gate
The ninth level illumination of chosen oneHaphazard dissolution of integrity
I am losing my mind
The last thing after I enter
The ninth level for chosen one
