Tent Revival

Goodbye June

You got me jumping like a
Summer tent revival,
Your cotton dress and my favorite shirt,
It gets rocky like the state of Colorado,
Well kiss up those days that followThis Summer lover is going under cover
I spy your heart and you stole my key
This magic potion is a love sick notion
You got me straight skipping out of my shoes.You broke my heart when you left for Chicago,
Your sweet perfume still lingers on my pillow
