Hopelessly

Rick Astley

I walk the wire every night
I can't decide between wrong and right
I've lost control over the thing I do
'Cos I'm hopelessly falling in love with you
Now the one who never took a chance
Becomes a victim of circumstance
I've lost my way, now I'm so confused
'Cos I'm hopelessly falling in love with you
All my dreams are far behind me
They don't matter any more
I don't care about the things I could loose
'Cos I'm hopelessly falling in love with you
Now the one who always played it safe
Becomes another who's lost his way
I can't believe it, although I know it's true
'Cos I'm hopelessly falling in love with you
And all my dreams begin to blind me
And I was so confused
And I don't care about the things I could loose
'Cos I'm hopelessly falling in love with you
I'm not gonna fight it, I'm gonna choose
To hopelessly fall, ooh yeah
You know I'll hopelessly fall in love with you
