Los Angeles

Patent Pending

She said Los Angeles has never been so cold she said we shouldn't even bother she said the way things have been goingwe've been showing signs of getting better get her let her know that there is no more time and that no one ever said forever leaves you any timewell I'm lost so please get me out of here.
You've gotta be kidding me, this is killing me,
won't let you throw away this chance of a lifetime, you and me are so blind.
I'll say nothing cause there's nothing nice to say this quick before it loses meaning, I've lost control and I'm screaming(I'm screaming), screaming out loud.I said Los Angeles was eating at her soul she said i sound more like her father.we've been showing signs of getting better
leaves you any timewell I'm lost so please get me out of here.
