Guns And Roses

Nicole Scherzinger

Yeah... ooh... baby... ooh why... mmm... why
Why are those tears falling
Why do I hear 'em calling
Out my name
Out my name
Look I know we both said some things
But we don't mean half of what we say... we say
Throwing these words like hand grenades
Up in the air and watch 'em rain
You got a way to drive me out my mind
That's when I turn it back at you
Fire away without a clue
Of how much is really hurting you
So baby go ahead and take your aim at me again
Cause I'm okay with war if love is how it ends
The way that you say sorry
And put those lips on me
It ain't gon be picture perfect
But what it is
Is guns n roses
We're guns n roses
You can throw a bomb my way
For every time I make mistakes
But you know that'd never break what we built
And baby that makeup sex
Makes all of this pain worth itSo I'll fight with you over and over again
So baby go ahead and take your aim at me again
Cause I'm okay with war if love is how it ends
The way that you say sorry
And put those lips on me
It ain't gon be picture perfect
But what it is
Is guns n roses
We're guns n roses
We've got a bleeding love
You are my deepest cut
And I believe in us
You should know
Cause every man will have his faults

Like every rose will have it's thorns
If it don't hurt then we're not feeling love at all
So baby go ahead and take your aim at me again
Cause I'm okay with war if love is how it ends
The way that you say sorry
And put those lips on me
But what it is
Is guns n roses
We're guns n roses
Guns n roses
We're guns n roses
