How Near Is Love

Engelbert Humperdinck

They tell me how far that you play to the moon and named the stars
that shine above
On Venus and Mars
we will be very soon Oh, but I want to know how near is loveWhen yo're close to me I could touch the sky
at times I can see
heaven in your eyes
you don't know the painof loving in vain
so please tell me now
how near is love
When yo're close to me
I could touch the sky
at times I can see
heaven in your eyes
you don't know the pain of loving in vain
so please tell me now
how near is love
so please tell me now
how near is love
