Carcinogen Crush

AFI

Speechless
I read the words between your lines
In isolation
Silence separatesI wept as I heard you speak
Words I know you didnt write
But I believe you, believe them
'Cause you spoke them again in my dreams last nightI swear to you Im not the one
I swear so Ill become
(What you were over)
Your only, dream-likeTake a bow
Youve performed exquisitely
And though the millions scream
I know youll see
Each subtletys understood by meI, I would be as devout
As the high school sweetheart
That I never had, I s-s-swearI swear to you Im not the one
I swear so Ill become
(What you were over)
Your only, dream-likeSo if you are confined to me
I swear that you will be
(What you were over)
So lonely, dream-likeYour airs of grace, your airs of grace will fill me
Your airs of grace, your airs of grace will fill me
Your airs of grace, your airs of grace will fill me
Your airs of grace, your airs of grace just kill me
Oh!I swear to you, Im not the one
I swear so Ill become your onlySo if you are confined to me
I swear you will be
(What you were over)
So lonely, dream-likeDream-like
Dream-like
