Sometimes I Cry

New Ridaz

The other day i found my way to get around to picking up the pieces of this mess that we made no its to late, were both to blame i saw your face, we looked so happy could we have stayed that way we'll never know what could have happened cause we couldnt work it out when i think about the loving that you gave to me

when i think about the way things use to be
sometimes i cry
then i think about maybe we were meant to be

now you call me reminicen on them hugs and them kisses that you gave me on the daily baby now my nights are alone nobody on the phone turn the lights on to an empty home i wish i could go back in time and rewind somethings have to end not love and hate theres a thin line between them so we had to end it before it hurt our friendship remember that the good will always be shining back im sorry for making you sad

when i think about the way things use to be
sometimes i cry

tell me what you want to do baby girl still here for you no need for you to cry no more i know its hard to let us go pictures and the letters remind me of the good times what we had and we shared and we cared about eachother time goes on and people change and its sad cause our love will never be the same but time goes on and people change cause our love will never be the same

sometimes i cry

sometime im okay sometimes im going crazy
sometimes its so hard to forget about you baby
sometimes im okay sometimes im going crazy
