

Bada Boom, Bada Bling

Caleb Hawley

Well you think I'm free, but I cost money yeah you're gonna be my sugar mama if you wanna be my honey
Don't want no woman with empty pockets
Cause she's better buy the gold if she wants her picture in a golden locket Well my baby gonna buy me dinner tonight
She gonna take me to the movies, She don't need no Diamond Ring
Well my baby gonna treat me like she knows is right
And that's alright with me Bada boom, bada bling
She can buy herself a diamond ring
Aaooo, cha-ching
I'ma sit around and do my thing Well, Sasha's she be talkin' fierce again
Saying women runnin' runnin' the world
But if a lady wanna do all the dirty work
Now that's my kinda girl
Yeah She foots the bill, puts my name in her will
And I don't need to be in denial
Cause she can take care of everything Hillary Clinton Style
