Pieces

ItÂ’s Alive

She said she's over it
I guess I already knew
I'm now discovering this
Awful, burning sound
This feeling's sharpening
So take it, take it back
My mind's rebelling
And just watch me come undoneWhat the hell was I thinking,
Believing in you, believing in you?Whoa, you're ripping me into pieces now (pieces now, whoa)
Whoa, you're ripping me into pieces now (pieces now)She loves the taste of pain
And it's clear she's already used
I somehow find in her
This easy kind of love
This love is deepening
So shake it, shake it off
But my body's needing it
Just watch her set me offWhoa, you're ripping me into pieces now (pieces now, whoa)
Whoa, you're ripping me into pieces now (pieces now)Well I can't, I can't Never will I ever let the
Things you said cut through me
And I won't, I won't
Never will I ever let the
Things you said...
Whoa, you're ripping me into pieces now, pieces nowWhoa, you're ripping me into pieces now (pieces now, whoa)
Whoa, you're ripping me into pieces now (pieces now)
