Old Time Fiddle

Vince Gill

I wanna hear an old time fiddle
And play an old time fiddle song
I might even drink just a little
If you play 'Little Jolie Blon'And if you're lookin' me, I'm liable to be
In the middle of the ol' dance floor
I wanna hear an old time fiddle
Like you never get to hear anymoreI wanna throw down on a hoe down
Hanging with the people I know
Hear the sweet sound of a breakdown
When you put a little rosin' on the bowY'all come on over when the sun goes down
Bang on the ol' screen door
I wanna hear an old time fiddle
Like you never get to hear anymoreI miss ol' Herman Stover
Playin' 'Listen To The Mockingbird'
It was Piedmont, Oklahoma
It was the sweetest sound I ever heardSkinny ol' man in a cowboy band
You could barely get the people in the door
I wanna hear an old time fiddle
Like you never get to hear anymoreI wanna throw down on a hoe down
Hanging with the people I know
Hear the sweet sound of a breakdown
When you put a little rosin on the bowPlay diggy diggy li, diggy diggy lo
Then a little cotton-eyed Joe
I wanna hear an old time fiddle
Like you never get to hear anymoreI wanna throw down on a hoe down
Hanging with the people I know
Hear the sweet sound of a breakdown
When you put a little rosin on the bowY'all come on over when the sun goes down
Bang on the ol' screen door
I wanna hear an old time fiddle
Like you never get to hear anymoreY'all come on over when the sun goes down
Bang on the ol' screen door
I wanna hear an old time fiddle
Like you never get to hear anymore
