You'll Be Gone

Angela Ammons

So what if it is me
And what if we don't care anymore?
What if we come clean?
Goodbye fear out the door'Cause you don't care
And you don't seekThere's no comprise
There's no denying
I don't wanna hear forever
When I close my eyesIt disappears whatever
And I can't seem to find
What it is that you want
If I turn around?I know, yes, I know
You'll be goneSo what is completely
There's so many questions on my mind
Thought you were the answer
But I've been lost for some time'Cause we don't care
And we don't speakThere's no comprise
There's no denying
I don't wanna hear forever
When I close my eyesIt disappears whatever
And I can't seem to find
What it is that you want
If I turn around?I know, yes, I know
You'll be goneGone, gone, gone
If I turn around, you'll be gone
Gone, gone, gone
If I turn aroundI don't wanna hear forever
When I close my eyesIt disappears whatever
And I can't seem to find
What it is that you want
If I turn around?I know, yes, I know
You'll be gone
