Betray

Patareni

I watched you change
I never knew
That you would be
Like all the rest
You were so true, too good to be trueI trusted you, and fell apart again
I cannot change the fact
That you're not coming back
So depressed, I'm your slave
Betrayed me, you're not the one
To be trusted with my love
Betrayed me, you're not the one
Who should be trusted with my loveI had to leave, so I could breathe
I hate to fightthat's not what I want
You were so true, too good to be trueI trusted you, and fell apart again
I cannot change the fact
That you're not coming back
So depressed, I'm your slave
Betrayed me, you're not the one
To be trusted with my love
Betrayed me, you're not the one
Who should be trusted with my loveI trusted you, and fell apart again
I cannot change the fact
That you're not coming back
So depressed, I'm your slave
Betrayed me, you're not the one
To be trusted with my love
Betrayed me, you're not the one
Who should be trusted with my loveI trusted you, and fell apart again
I cannot change the fact
That you're not coming back
So depressed, I'm your slave
Betrayed me, you're not the one
To be trusted with my love
Betrayed me, you're not the one
Who should be trusted with my loveBetrayed me, Betrayed me,slave, Betrayed me, Betrayed me
